The future of your community:

Recently, a spotlight has been focused on the housing crisis in San Diego County. The issues are complex and will take creativity driven by innovative thinking. The Building Industry Association of San Diego's BIA CARES is looking to bring "fresh – new thinking" into the conversation. It is in this spirit of collaboration that we ask you to join the conversation and address the thoughts below in your essay:

Contributing to the current housing crisis is a lack of dialogue that encompasses an how to better incorporate the needs of the community with thoughtful changes. The big question is how do we work together to achieve positive development.

The challenges include rethinking the planning/building/financing process that impacts the development industry (both new and redevelopment, commercial and residential) in San Diego. Balancing affordability, lifestyle preservation, environmental stability, transportation, health and safety and community culture with current housing/building needs and requirements.

How can you contribute to finding solutions to these challenges? What would you do?

Choose 2- 3 of the items below to address in your essay:

- The growing inability to afford a home in San Diego County
- Landlords rights vs. Renter's rights – what is fair?
- Increased numbers in the Un-housed
- Balancing the need for housing and individual communities' culture

Items to consider addressing:

Recognizing the issue is deeper than just building more homes and takes into consideration the growth/sustainability of the San Diego Economy.

- How do we engage more San Diegan's into the conversation in a fair and equitable manner that promotes solutions?
- How would you use your current interests (architecture, building, marketing, finance, design, etc.) to create positive solutions/communication?
- What would a community action plan look like that addresses building a better San Diego?
- What city(ies), local or nationwide, would you choose as a model for new thinking in San Diego building? Why?

What type of housing do you want to see California provide to meet your preferred lifestyle requirements after you graduate college and in the future?
